

NEDA
Director

NEDA is a young film director based in Europe.

She spent her childhood wandering around Great Britain, United States and Russia. After graduating from the Edinburgh College of Art, UK in Film Directing and completing several award winning short films, she has a jump start in advertising, directing commercials for the biggest brands in Europe.

At the moment, she is working on her debut feature film. Her main motivation is to look for beauty in the reality that exists.
