

Mario Zozin
Director

Mario Zozin was born in 1980 in Bonn. He studied directing at the world-famous film academy “Filmakademie Baden-Württemberg (Germany)”. There he set the groundwork for a versatile career by writing and directing music videos, commercials, and short films. Many of which won international prizes like the “Cannes Young Director Award” and an „European Student of the Year Award“ from the Art Director’s Club. Mario’s unique combination of craft and creativity has allowed him to create commercials for a client list that includes Mercedes Benz, Toyota, Chase or Lufthansa.

In 2018 he underlined his profile as a storyteller by helming all five episodes for the Primetime Mini-Series „Team 13“ as well writing and directing the short film „The Man with the Hammer“, which will premiere on festivals in 2019.

Mario lives with his wife and his two kids near Cologne, Germany. Besides his artistic work, Mario is very passionate about triathlon.