

Björn Amend
Director

Björn is based in Hamburg and has been working in the film industry for more than 20 years. In the last years he has been focusing mostly on films involving cars or cats. Quite a combination! On top of directing he is also a skilled writer/creative, so it is no wonder that quite few of his car films have also been written by him.

Björn is a truly international director and has been shooting cars & cats all over the world : Australia, South Korea, Netherlands, Morocco, South Africa, Egypt, Dubai, Abu Dhabi, Libanon, U.S.A, United Kingdom, Denmark, Germany, Austria, Switzerland, Italy, Spain, Portugal, Belgium, France, Serbia, Philippines, Poland, Czech Republic, Chile, Slovenia, Croatia, Russia, India...

And in the last decade has worked for clients like: Mercedes-Benz, Toyota, Maybach, Mitsubishi, Philips, Uncle Ben's, Whiskas, Etihad Airways, Tchibo, Fisherman's Friend, Skoda, Subaru, Deutsche Bank, MTC, Coca Cola, Jacobs Coffee, Cappy, Nesquick, Generali, Elite Coffee, Excelcat, Darty, Purina Gourmet; Renault, Weltmeister among others.

He has won numerous awards on international festivals, especially for his car work. Among them being his Mercedes Benz film "A night at the museum", getting awarded with gold awards at both the Cannes corporate festival and the German car industries "Autovision" award.
