

Lorenz Klapfer
Director

Growing up in the Dolomites, Lorenz has always felt a strong connection towards nature.

Today, his calm attitude still echoes the steadiness of the mountains. He's the eye of the storm on set, remaining composed while everything hurls around him.

Lorenz is drawn to artful images that are born from authentic situations, constantly looking for a certain significance in the shots he directs. Art is his preferred medium to express what's on his mind.
