

Teddy Cherim
Director

Welcome to Teddy's multiverse. There's never a dull moment with Teddy. He loves to build visual worlds crafted especially for each project. He brings a unique, musical take to his films – mixing humour, with epicness (that would be his half-American side), and dynamic, elevated filmmaking. He's a one-of-a-kind director, and his work carries with it a clear identity and a Teddy-stamp of approval. His talents don't only lend themselves to commercials; with a number of documentary series, music videos and films already under his belt. If you're looking for an iconic film and to stand out amongst all the noise – Teddy's your guy.
