Julian Wildner

Julian Wildner is a Berlin-based Director of Photography and Colorist.

He aims to achieve a timeless and organic look in his work. Being mostly self-taught, Julian developed a fast, intuitive way of working.
He reacts quickly, frames instinctively and adapts easily to different environments whether tightly scheduled or more improvisational in nature.

He gained valuable experience working within production companies in Berlin and Munich. This shaped a production-aware mindset. Julian is always open to meaningful collaborations - ranging from commercial work to passion projects - while continuously refining his visual language.
