

Oleg Metlinskii
Director

Somewhere between a TV commercial and a Social Media that's where I like to play. I craft social-first content that's emotional, cinematic, and always alive. I direct, shoot, and edit — it was always hard to choose just one, so I chose to blend them all. I love people in my frame, and I'm not afraid of AI or experimentation either, they bring new energy and unexpected depth to every story.

Currently based in Amsterdam.
