

Juliane Taust
Director

Juliane Taudt is a Munich-based director who's commercial work is defined by sensitivity and empathy, blended with visuals of beauty and precision.

Though she considers Munich her home, she spent her formative years in a small village in East Germany - having grown up in a small town where she was forced to develop her creativity, and only in Munich she was able to execute her creative vision into directorial products.

With a background in journalism and writing, Juliane's work is characterized by simple, observational visuals with docu-style influences, creating a candid yet touching atmosphere with any brief that she tackles. Her stories are relatable and based on everyday life, with a focus on evoking emotional responses.

Her love for working with people authentically is not only reflected on screen, but behind the scenes as well. On set, Juliane is known for her empathy and care towards the people she works with, making sure that everyone can feel emotionally invested in the story being told. Her flexibility in adapting her work to suit everyone on set makes her a joy to work with.
